

Peggy D.

123 Anywhere Road
Anywhere, OH 00000
(555) 555- 1234
peggyd@email.com

Education

199X-199X West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, WV
B.S. Nutrition, Minor: Biology

Employment History

Nutritionist

1/0X-Present Greater Columbus Community Food Bank, Columbus, OH

- Coordinate and conduct after-school nutrition programs for community agencies.
- Perform food pantry demonstrations for member agencies.
- Conduct training of nutrition evaluation system to help agencies select more nutritious foods for their clients.

Coordinator

200X-200X Indiana Department of Education, Indianapolis, IN

- Planned and coordinated the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) in child and family day care and adult day care programs.
- Provided technical assistance and training to schools, institutions, childcare centers, and summer food program sites that were child nutrition programs.
- Prepared corrective action for sponsoring agencies and worked with staff to ensure compliance with federal regulation.

Nutritionist III

199X-200X Bureau of Public Health, Office of Child Nutrition, Indianapolis, IN

- Coordinated and conducted annual monitoring of eight Women, Infants, and Children Programs (WIC).
- Provided technical assistance to local agencies to ensure compliance with federal regulation.
- Interpreted federal regulations to write policy that was suitable for local agencies to implement.

Nutritionist

199X-199X Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), Indianapolis, IN

- Provided dietary counseling and nutritional assessment to WIC participants.
- Served as a nutrition resource for health care providers.
- Developed, evaluated, implemented lesson plans for nutrition education classes.

Other Experience

Currently under contract with Princess Youth organization to develop menus for the National School Lunch Program.

References

References are available on request.